

International Assistance Dog Week

FUN FACTS ABOUT GUIDE AND SERVICE DOGS FOR KIDS

1. Service dogs spend a year or more in training before they are given to a family.
2. Service dogs must learn to ignore other people and focus on their companion, even when someone else offers them food or calls to them.
3. If you see a service dog, ask before patting them.
4. It costs around $20 000 to train a puppy to be a guide dog.
5. Service dogs need to pass a test before they can go to work.

Service Dog Quiz

Visit Easy Science for Kids page All about Guide and Service Dogs to find the missing words.
Guide Dog Facts for Kids (easyscienceforkids.com)

1. Service dogs have to take a _____ before they can go to work.
2. Certain breeds, such as _____, are known for making good service _____ because they are obedient and easy to _____.
3. Service dogs spend a year or more in training before they are given to a _____.
4. If you see a _____ dog, ask before _____ him.
5. Service dogs must learn to ignore other people and focus on his _____, even when someone else offers him _____ or calls to him.
6. Training a service dog costs a lot of _____.
7. These dogs usually wear a special _____ or coat and they go through a long training process before they are adopted.
8. Other service dogs help people with _____ disabilities.

Dog Craft – Spring Dog

YOU WILL NEED:

- Construction paper
- Scissors
- Tape
- Glue stick
- Googly eyes

